16th September, 1898.

Dear Sirs,

I duly received your letters of the 14th instant, respecting your steamers "STRATHLEVEN" and "TERGESTE", and having submitted these cases for the consideration of the Committee today, I have to say that action has been deferred subject to the necessary surveys being carried out as proposed in your letters.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

pro Secretary.

Messrs. Burrell & Son,
