20th February, 1899.

Dear Sirs,

I duly received your letter of the 16th instant, and note your remarks respecting the completion of the Special Survey No.2 required on your steamer "STRATHLEVEN", ~~and~~^{but} in view of the fact that the year of grace allowed by the Rules for the completion of a survey expired so long ago as October last, I shall feel obliged if, before submitting this case for the consideration of the Committee, you will kindly state within what definite time you will be able to complete the survey, and I have to point out that this should be done without further delay, in order to entitle the vessel to retain her class.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
