9th. November, 1899.

Gentlemen,

With reference to the surveys now overdue on the boilers and fifth length of tunnel shafting of the Steamer "STRATHLEVEN", I have to request that you will ascertain from the Owners and let me know what arrangements have been made for the submission of this vessel to the inspections in view of the fact that she has recently arrived at Bremen.

For your information I may add that a letter was addressed to Messrs. Burrell & Son on the 1st. instant in regard to this matter but no reply has been received.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,

GLASGOW.
