18th September, 1903.

Dear Sirs,

I duly received your letter of the 12th instant respecting the Boiler Survey of your Steamer "BAKU STANDARD", and note that the vessel is now at Christiania and will return to the Tyne, and that the inspection in question will be carried out before the Steamer again proceeds to sea.

In reply I have to say that this arrangement is considered satisfactory and action in the case has accordingly been deferred for the present.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
