Dear Sir,

"PAMIR".

Thank you for your letter of the 1st January relating to the above ship, which foundered at sea, and note you have forwarded to the Owners copies of the Surveyors' reports.

With reference to the question of submitting the usual charges for the copies of the reports I would suggest that these be waived in this case in view of the tragic circumstances involved in the loss of this ship and the many unrecoverable expenses with which the Owners will no doubt be faced.

Yours faithfully,

The Secretary,
LONDON
