Enclosure

1st January, 1958.

Dear Sir,

Classn(S)

"PAMIR"

HWM

I duly received your letter of the 16th December and think it well to inform you that in view of your remarks photostat copies of the Hamburg Surveyors' report on the Special Survey in May/June 1956 and the drydocking in May 1957 have today been forwarded direct to the Owners, and a copy of my letter addressed to them is sent for your information.

In accordance with the Society's usual practice, there is a charge of £4. 14. 6. for the copies of reports, and I shall be glad to learn whether you consider it desirable to charge the Owners in this instance. If so, perhaps you will be so good as to render the account to them and credit this Office when the charges have been paid.

Yours faithfully,

Assistant Clerk to
the Classification Committee

D. R. Walburn, Esq.,
HAMBURG.
