PRIVATE & CONFIDENTIAL.

4th November, 1904.

Sir,

M. I am in receipt of your letter of the 3rd instant, enclosing one from Messrs. Swan, Hunter & Wigham Richardson respecting their Cunard Express Steamer No. 735, and in reply thereto I am directed to inform you that the Builders' proposal to punch the margin bars of the watertight bulkheads for rivets $1/8$ " less than the Rule size and rime out the holes to the full size, instead of drilling the holes in these bars as previously arranged, will be approved.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

pro Secretary.

E.C. Champness Esq.,

NEWCASTLE.
