REC'D
ANS'D

Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 3rd. instant having reference to the s/s "STETTIN", the Owners inform me that this vessel is trading regularly to this Port and is here about every fortnight.

The Boiler survey would have been held ere this but owing to a strike of boiler-makers this has been postponed.

The Owners state that it will be very inconvenient to stop the vessel twice, once for dry docking and again for Boiler survey but that immediately the strike is settled, which they hope may be the case shortly, the vessel will be dry docked, and the tail shaft and boilers submitted for survey.

They trust this arrangement may be deemed satisfactory.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

G. A. Baker

The Secretary,

London.

Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 27th. instant having reference to the "SARATOGA", the General Informer as that this vessel is calling regularly to this port and is here about every fortnight. The boiler survey would have been held ere this but owing to a strike of boiler-makers this has been postponed. The Company state that it will be very inconvenient to stop the vessel there, once for dry-docking and again for boiler survey but that immediately the strike is settled which they hope may be the case shortly, the vessel will be dry-docked, and the tall shaft and boiler submitted for survey. They trust this arrangement may be deemed satisfactory.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

M. A. Roberts

The Secretary,

London.

Referred to the Chief Ship Surveyor,
and the Chief Engineer Surveyor.
