LLOYDS REGISTER 29th. May 1906.
LONDON.

REC'D 30 MAY 1906

The Secretary, ANS:
Lloyd's Register.

Sir,

We beg to acquaint you that Messrs. Cairns, Noble & Co. of this Port, inform us that they are arranging to sell their steamer "CAIRNGOWAN" and for this purpose require to be supplied with classification certificates shewing that the Special Survey No.2 has been carried out. They request that they may have these certificates by Thursday.

With reference to this case we would point out that the fee of £ 3 . 3 . 0 due for re-assignment of freeboard is still outstanding, and we shall be pleased to receive your instructions as to whether the certificates should be withheld until this fee is paid. Please see our letter on this subject dated 18th. April and your reply dated 25th. April.

We are, Sir,

Your obedient Servants,

Pro. the Surveyors,

A. Wardrop
