

18th November, 1949.

Dear Sir,

E.

T.S.F.V. "FAIRFREE".
Refrigerating Machinery.

With reference to your letter of the 11th ultimo, I have to inform you that the remarks contained in the copy of Messrs. Salvesen & Co.'s letter of the 10th October concerning the capability of the standby plant have been noted.

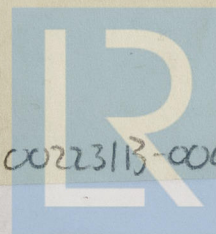

With regard to the spare gear enumerated in my letter of the 15th August last, I have to point out that these additional spares are required because the components of the two units are not interchangeable as required by Section 2, Clause 3 (c) of the Rules.

Yours faithfully,

AcS
pro Secretary.

The Secretary,

GLASGOW.
