v agreed

The ship has been laid up and on the 25th November, 1958 the Committee agreed to the class remaining in abeyance meantime, provided that the surveys then outstanding be dealt with before the ship again proceeds to sea.

proposal

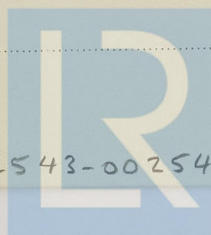

The Owners' London Agents now write that the Owners have given instructions for all surveys now due to be carried out forthwith. With regard to the Special Survey they desire to be informed whether this inspection could be postponed for 12 months until May, 1962.

ical
mendation

a satisfactory GE (Ci. 1459) should be held about due date, but period of postponement will be determined by the condition as then found. JHA 26.10.59.
