Vessel's Name :

s.s. "STAVROS"

The Owners of this vessel - which has been laid up at Syra for some time - want to put her again into commission, and as the boilers have been due for survey/since January arrangements are now being made for this requirement to receive attention. It is also the Owners' wish to convert their ship to an open shelter decker at the same time.

We therefore, telephoned you this morning kindly to telegraph your Piraeus Surveyor to proceed to the Isle of Syra, on receipt of a request from the Kassos Steam Navigation Company (Telegraphic address "TROPIS") of Syra, for the purpose of attending to the above matters.

On receipt of intimation from you that your Surveyor has been instructed in this connection, we shall telegraph our Syra friends accordingly.

We shall be obliged if you will also be good enough to let us know what will be the vessel's draught, when the shelter deck is re-opened, and the estimated corresponding deadweight.

Thanking you in advance,

P.S. We note from subsequent 'phone message that telegraphic instructions have been sent to your Piraeus Surveyor, for which we thank you.
