Dear Sirs,

s.s. "CARADALE"

The case of the above named vessel has received the consideration of the Committee today together with your cablegram of yesterday's date for which I am much obliged.

The position in this case is that the year of grace allowed for the overdue Special Survey has now expired, and the Committee desire the Owners to be informed that if maintenance of class is desired the overdue survey must be carried out without fail on the vessel's arrival at your port.

It is concluded, however, she has been purchased for breaking up, and it will be appreciated if you will keep me advised of any developments.

It is thought well to add that the Load Line Certificate issued by this Society expired on the 30th November last, and the ship apparently is completing her voyage without a valid certificate.

Yours faithfully,

c.c. F

Clerk to the Classification Committee

The Surveyors,
HONG KONG.
