7th May, 1957.

Dear Sirs,

I have your memorandum of the 29th May respecting the steamer "CABO TORINANA" and note your remarks.

Provided a satisfactory General Examination is carried out as proposed, there will be no objection to the Special Survey being postponed, but in view of the ship's age the period of deferment must be determined by the condition as then found.

Yours faithfully,

c.c.Mad.

Clerk to the Classification Committee.

The Surveyors,
BILBAO.
