Rotterdam .

Sir .

We received your letter of the 21 instant , and I have its contents regarding the damage repairs caused by ice to your ship; but I regret to say that I do not agree with your that she is not seriously damaged .

When your steamer on the 17th instant , whilst she was lying near another steamer so that I could not see the extent of the but on Monday the 20th instant , I have very carefully examined your ship , and I have allowed a few indented plates to be disturbed , these plates being at the light water line do not water , the rudder gauge is damaged and survey in dry-docked to which all parties agreed .

On the bow and at the stern on each side I have marked the plates as well as the repairs manager and myself.
Condition of these plates is such that they will require to be repaired and I am sorry to learn that you have given instructions not to touch them , because in case they are not dealt with I shall bring the matter before the Committee .

I am Sir ,

Your Obedient Servant .
