Dear Mr. Hunter,

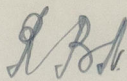

We are experiencing great difficulty in obtaining payment of the charges amounting to £810.15.0 outstanding against the m.v. "BROWNS BAY" for the survey held on this ship at your port between April and October, 1953.

I notice that the ship is still at Kiel. Is this because the ship has a writ on her mast or is otherwise held as security for unpaid bills?

It would be of interest to us to know whether the ship repair^{ers} charges have been met, if you are in a position to diplomatically ascertain this information.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

R. N. Hunter, Esq.,
KIEL.
