4th October, 1960.

Classn. (H)

Dear Sirs,

S.S. "THEOBALDIUS"

I acknowledge your memorandum of the 16th September and note that this ship is still laid up at Lough Swilly.

In the circumstances the Committee are agreeable to the class remaining undisturbed in the meantime, provided all outstanding surveys are carried out before the ship again proceeds to sea.

I shall be glad if you will advise the Owners accordingly, and remind them that the hull class is at present continued subject as stated in the Special Reasons List No.176.

Yours faithfully,

Deputy Clerk to the Classification Committee.

The Surveyors,
ROTTERDAM.
