Dear Dick,

Many thanks for your note of the 23rd, sending copies of letters you have exchanged with Mr. Nicholas concerning the "ISLE OF SARK".

I must confess it seems rather surprising that arrangements regarding the incidence of surveys were not made at the time of the agreement concluded with the British Railway Executive "at the highest level", but I suppose details were not discussed.

With kindest regards,
Yours sincerely,

R. J. Sladden, Esq.,
LONDON.
