13th August, 1959

Dear Sirs,

Motorship "CASSIAN SEA"

In compliance with the request made during the telephone conversation with Mr. Simms on the 11th instant, I would inform you that in view of the Classification position of this ship, the Committee cannot authorise the issue of a Certificate (as an unclassified vessel) for the ship to proceed under her own power unless a General Examination of the hull and machinery is held in drydock, the Donkey Boiler Survey carried out, the screwshaft drawn and examined and all auxiliary machinery examined under working conditions, under the supervision of the Society's Surveyors.

If, however, you desire the ship to proceed as an unclassified hulk in tow, the Committee are agreeable to a General Examination being held afloat, and the question of drydocking being left to the discretion of the Surveyor carrying out the examination. If steam is required for towage purposes then one or more of the donkey boilers, as required for this purpose, should be surveyed.

Yours faithfully,

Deputy Clerk to the Classification Committee
