ENCLOSURES.

Dear Sir, "CASSIAN SEA".

We have to inform you that the items outstanding against the above-named ship, were not dealt with during the Vessel's recent call at the Isle of Grain. We are dependent upon Messrs. Wm. Hurst, of Sheerness, to advise us of the arrival of vessels at the Refinery and in this case, as the vessel was in over a week-end, they omitted to do so.

We have contacted Messrs. Marcou & Sons, Ltd., who state that the vessel is at present in the Persian Gulf, but they are unable to state where her next charter will take her to. They have promised to contact you as soon as information is available.

The deferred reports on this case are returned herewith.

Yours faithfully,

THE SURVEYORS,

Per:

The Secretary,
LONDON.
