Dear Sirs,

Motorship "CAPACITY"

With reference to the classification in this Society's Register Book of the above named ship, you doubtless appreciate the fact that she has not been seen by our Surveyors in drydock since February, 1959, and that a Special Survey fell due last October.

It is understood from Mr. Orde that you are definitely arranging for the ship to be drydocked this month for a General Examination with a view to postponement of the Special Survey and, while this is satisfactory to the Committee, they have asked me to stress the fact that they will be unable to agree to any further postponement of this examination. They, therefore, rely on your definitely fulfilling the arrangements proposed.

Yours faithfully,

c.c.Mr. Orde, London.

Clerk to the Classification Committee.

Messrs. Everard Shipping Co. Ltd.,
The Wharf,
Greenhithe,
Kent.
