31st January, 1908.

Sir,

M.

With reference to your first entry report No. 2688 on the hull of the new steamer "CARLINGFORD" I have to point out that you should have mentioned on this report the fact that the vessel would be taken to Glasgow for the purpose of being fitted with her engines and boilers, and that the casings over the same etc. require to be completed to the satisfaction of the Society's Surveyors to render the vessel eligible for classification.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.

Mr. J. Macwilliam,

DUBLIN.
