31st January, 1908.

Sir,

M. At it appears from reports received from the Society's Surveyor at Dublin that the new Steamer "CARLINGFORD" built by the Dublin Dockyard Co., has been fitted with her engines and boilers at your port I shall be glad to learn whether the work of completion of the engine and boiler casings &c. has been done under the inspection of the Society's Surveyors at your port. If so please arrange for a report to be forwarded on form No.8 for the information of the Committee with a view to the vessel's classification.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.

The Secretary,

GLASGOW.
