QUESTION

ANSWER

I shall be glad to receive a reply to the enquiry contained in my memorandum of the 18th February.

Date:— 14th March, 1958.

s.s. "ULLSGARTH".

At the moment I am unable to give you any reply about this ship. The Owners are in some difficulties in that there is a strike in the Yard which they normally use for slipping their vessels. This strike has been on for six weeks, and one of their Tugs, the "APPIEGARTH", is held up.

In the circumstances the Owners do not feel disposed to do any more survey work for the moment.
