Our reference

We have been approached by the Owners of this vessel regarding the Special Survey of the above ship which became due in August 1961 and for which a postponement was granted until August 1962, after a satisfactory General Examination held in Bombay.

It is the intention to carry out this Special Survey at this port and with regard to the sailing schedules, the vessel is due to arrive here in the early days of October next.

In connection herewith the Owners request a further postponement of the Special Survey until that date.

Awaiting the favour of your reply.

Yours faithfully,

The Secretary,
LONDON.
