The whole of the Hull fees including Freeboard and the £420 as shown above will be credited to Whyalla in our next A/c. 23 Spl.

As regards the Machinery fees, £21 has been credited to Melbourne and £20 to Newcastle, (as in the case of sister vessel "River Glenelg"). The balance £165. 12. 0, in addition to £64 for Electrical Installation, and £100 travelling expenses is credited to Sydney. The latter item covers any local expenses in addition to contributing to interstate travelling expenses of Mr. Pratt and myself in connection with "River" Class Vessels.

These figures have been shown in our books accordingly.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,
