Dear Sir,

We have in the past had occasion to draw attention to serious delays in the receipt of reports from Manila and had sincerely hoped that with your new organisation such delays would not occur again. My attention has, however, again been drawn to the lack of reports and answers to enquiries made to you.

The delays of such cases are listed on the attached sheet.

I need hardly tell you that this state of affairs is very disappointing to us. I am sure you are aware of the difficulties and inconvenience which are caused by the delay in the receipt of reports and replies to letters and I must request once again that you deal with the present cases and all future cases without delay. I must also request that you acknowledge receipt of this letter by return.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

E.R. Sanderson Esq.,
MANILA.
