T.

Sir,

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 31st October last, regarding the non-payment of the First Entry Fees amounting to £106 : 12 : 4 , in the case of the Steamer "RIVER ELY",.

I beg to inform you that on the 25th October last, I mentioned the matter to the Secretary of the Builders who stated that he had been directed to get the account for the Fees on the next vessel as well so, that a statement of the Fees due to this Society could be placed before the Directors of his Firm , and that he expected to settle these accounts shortly.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

The Secretary,

London.
