Dear Sir,

m.v. "GUERNSEY QUEEN".

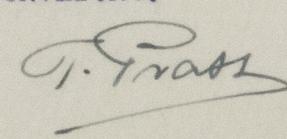

In reply to the query raised in the classing letter on this vessel dated the 9th instant, we beg to state that red lead paint was fitted in the single bottom under the motor engines with the Owners' consent, owing to oil drip from the engines collecting in this space.

This point was raised by us with the Builders who stated that this had been their practice in previous similar cases.

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

THE SURVEYORS.

Per.

The Secretary,

LONDON.
