QUESTION

ANSWER

With reference to memorandum of the August, I shall be to learn, by return, this case now stands.

"WEATHER OBSERVER".

Date:— 29th September, 1960.

I have been informed by the Shore Captain at the Ocean Weather Ship Base at Greenock that the ship arrived at Greenock on the 5th September and is no longer in service.

It is understood that the Air Ministry intend to dispose of this ship, but no decision has yet been reached as to whether she will be sold for further service or for breaking up.

The ship has been replaced in the fleet by the "WEATHER ADVISER".
