Lloyd's Register of Shipping,

71, Fenchurch Street, E.C.3.

Dear Sirs,

3rd June 1946.

I am in receipt of your letter of the 30th ultimo enclosing one from The Standard Steam Fishing Co., Ltd. relative to the ex Admiralty Trawlers "ROYAL MARINE", "HOMEGUARD", "GUARDSMAN", "GRENADIER" and "FUSILIER".

In the case of the last named vessel you will, of course, have received my letter of the 20th ultimo detailing the surveys necessary for maintenance of Class.

I may say that in the cases of the remaining vessels the necessary instructions have already been sent to the local Surveyors and I shall be glad if you will inform the Standard Steam Fishing Co. Ltd. accordingly.

I think it well to add that from the Surveyors' returns the vessels under survey at Belfast are the "HOMEGUARD" and "GRENADIER", whilst the "ROYAL MARINE" and "GUARDSMAN" are under survey at Barrow-in-Furness.

Yours faithfully,

The Surveyors,
GRIMSBY

Clerk to the Classification Committee.
