12th May, 1958.

Dear Sir,

"MONTE ABRIL"

In reply to your letter of the 8th instant, the Owners of the above vessel inform us that the rudder main piece is finished and that the ship is now at Cadiz, where they are making arrangements to dry dock her now in order to repair the rudder.

They state that they have given instructions to advance the Continuous Survey of the Oil Engines during the vessel's stay in Cádiz.

Yours faithfully,

The Secretary,
LONDON.
