Lloyd's Bank Chambers,

Middlesbrough, 8th. Dec. 1923.

ANSW

Dear Sir,

Furness S.B. Co's Nos. 59 and 60.

With reference to the plans of stiffening in the way of forward hatch in the above vessels, which are at present under consideration in the London office, the Builders desire to know the additional stiffening necessary so that the freeboards can be reduced 1 inch, as mentioned in the Secretary's letter of the 16th. October to Mr. Curchin.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

R. Bailey

The Secretary,
