Dear Sir,

Your letter dated the 16th June 1952 has been forwarded to me at the above address and its contents are noted.

at present I am on leave until the end of October and I therefore cannot give you the particulars of the Amstar Testing machine at the Madras Port Trust, as requested.

I hope to be in London on the 8th and 9th of this month and will call on you during my visit to the office should you desire it.

Yours faithfully
L. G. Cooper
