QUESTION

With reference to my letter of the 1st June last and previous correspondence, it will be appreciated if you will confirm from the Owners' New York Office that this ship is still laid up.

The Owners should also be reminded that in addition to the surveys previously stated as overdue the Port Screwshaft Survey became due at the end of December, 1960.

ANSWER

Date:— 7th March, 1961

This ship is still laid up at Maracaibo but she is in use as a storage for molasses.
