

"PLYMSTOCK"

As regards the torsional vibration characteristics it will be necessary for calculations required by the Rules to be submitted for consideration, together with the necessary detailed plans of shafting.

In the event of the Owner or Shipbuilder being unable to supply these calculations the Society would be prepared to do the necessary work, for which a nominal fee would be chargeable.

The information required to permit such calculations to be made would be as indicated on the attached sheet.

La.

10th November, 1955.

2

© 2020

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

004745-004754-0014