A/c's.

Dear Sirs,

"LELETA"

I understand that you have requested the sale of the above ship to take place at Middelburg, Holland on the 11th January 1967.

In view of your obvious interest in this matter may I draw your attention to the fact that accounts amounting to £103.18. 0d. as stated below, are due to this Society for fees for surveys carried out on this ship at Antwerp and Rotterdam.

Antwerp A/c. Fcs. 3,720.00 = £ 26.11. 6

Rotterdam A/c. Dutch Fl. 781.00 = £ 77. 6. 6

£103.18. 0

You may not be aware of the fact that the Society's class may be in jeopardy on account of non payment of the Society's fees or delay in carrying out surveys which are necessary to maintain the ship in the manner demanded by the Society's rules.

So far as the fees are concerned, payment of these would remove the first impediment. Failure to do so would mean the withdrawal of the Society's class, which, I am sure you will appreciate will affect the value of the ship.

In the circumstances I shall be pleased to learn if you wish to pay the amount of £103.18. 0. without delay to avoid the removal of Class for Non payment of fees.

Yours faithfully,

pro Secretary,

The Marine Midland Grace Trust Company,
NEW YORK.
