Dear Mr. Sladden,

I have had a request from T. Hamling, Ltd. (one of our good local trawler firms) to supply them with a document setting out the classification position of their steam trawler "St. Celestin", which was recently lost by collision.

An official inquiry is pending, and I have suggested they write officially to Fenchurch Street and no doubt you will be able to fix them up.

Our recent report No. 62197 covers all of the Special Survey except for the small outstanding item "Examination of foundation bolts and structure below engine and boilers".

With kindest regards,
Yours sincerely,

A. W. B. Edwards
