the Chief Ship Surveyor are desired on this case for the consideration of the Classing Committee.

agement to contain a succinct summary of any repairs that have been required and to show the cause or causes of such repairs, and also
g out clearly any exceptional features in connection with the case, so that the Classing Committee may have all the salient points
ed in the endorsement."—Extract from Sub-Committee's Report, 24/5/92.)

A S.S. No.3 (after a S.S. No.3-12,19) became due 12,31 and no part of the survey has been held.

The ship being laid up the usual undertaking
has been furnished.

The case received consideration last month (the Special ^{Survey} being more than 3 years overdue) when a general examination was required.

The Falmouth Surveyors now report the ship surveyed afloat and a general examination carried out, with satisfactory results.

The ship is still laid up.
It is submitted action be deferred.
