LLOYD'S REGISTER OF SHIPPING

28th August, 1964.

Dear Sir,

I have to advise you that the "MERSEY ENGINEER", on which class is at present suspended, is coming up for sale.

A Boiler Survey has already been held to enable the ship to be taken into drydock, and if the condition is satisfactory it is expected that the Westminster Dredging Co., will buy the ship.

I have approached them about continuing classification, and they expect to carry out some alterations and to keep the vessel in class.

I will report to you again of developments in due course.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary to the Liverpool Committee.

The Secretary,
LONDON.
