QUESTION

ANSWER

I shall be glad to receive a reply to my Memorandum of the 24th August.

Date:— 12th September, 1962.

We have been waiting for a decision on this case from the Mersey Docks & Harbour Board.

It seems likely that they will not keep the vessel in commission more than a few months.

The Boiler Survey will be held during the next few weeks and depending on the decision as to the ship's future,
it is probable that deferment of the Special Survey will be requested, in which case a General Examination will be held.

I will write to you again when
a firm decision has been obtained.
