8th April, 1959.

assn (H) Dear Sirs,

Steamer "SAN WENCESLAO"

I acknowledge your letter of the 6th April, the contents of which have been noted, and have to confirm that your proposal to carry out the Special Survey in October has been approved.

In August last Mr. Wyld telephoned this Office stating that the General Examination referred to in his letter of the 25th of that month was to ascertain likely repairs needed at the Special Survey, and it was concluded at that time that you no longer desired postponement of the Special Survey until September next.

Apoligising for any inconvenience caused.

Yours faithfully,

Clerk to the Classification Committee.
