Survey due Boiler Survey due February 1907.

Notices in regard to this survey were addressed to the Owners on the 14th March and 19th July last, to which no reply was received. Enquiries on the subject were addressed to the Hamburg Surveyors on the 11th September and 16th October, and from the reply received it appeared that the Surveyors had written to the Owners without eliciting a reply. On the 22nd October a letter was written to Messrs. H.G. Harper & Co., the Owners' Agents in this City, asking what definite arrangements it was proposed to make with a view to the inspection being held. An enquiry has to-day been made of Messrs. Harper, who state they are unable to obtain any reply to letters addressed to the Owners and that they consider it useless for them to write further to the Owners on the subject.

It may be added that the vessel was recently at Cardiff but left without anything being done in regard to the survey, neither could the Surveyors obtain from the Agents any information as to the carrying out of the inspection.

It is submitted that the Owners be informed that unless the survey of the boilers, now more than 8 mos. overdue, be held without further delay the vessel's Class will be dealt with.
