6th March, 1952.

Dear Sirs,

ations.

I have to acquaint you that the question of classification in the Society's Register Book of the s.s. "PORLOCK HILL" has been considered by the Committee in consequence of reports that she has been broken in two by heavy weather after grounding near Famagusta. In these circumstances, it has been decided to expunge the ship's class, and to make a record of "Wrecked 12,51" against her name in the Register Book.

Yours faithfully,

pro Secretary.
