

SEAS SHIPPING COMPANY, INC.
39 Cortlandt Street,
New York.

September 2nd, 1921.

Lloyd's Register of Shipping,
17 Battery Place,
New York City.

Dear Sirs:-

Referring to our letter dated August 26th, in which we advised you of the discontinuance of Lloyd's classification of our Steamers "ROBIN ADAIR" and "ROBIN HOOD", it will be noted that we stated that you would receive similar notification from the Robin Line Steamship Company with reference to Steamers "ROBIN GRAY" and "ROBIN GOODFELLOW".

We now quote you herewith telegram, dated Seattle, Washington, August 31st, from the Robin Line Steamship Company:-

"Seas Shipping Company,
39 Cortlandt Street,
New York, N. Y.

Replying your telegram twentyfifth also letter same date this authorizes you to discontinue Lloyd's Classification on Steamers Robin Goodfellow and Robin Gray stop please serve similar notification on Lloyd's as served with reference Steamers Adair and Hood letter following confirming.

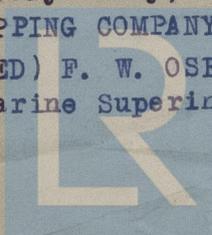

Robin Line Steamship Co. D. E. Skinner, Pres.

In accordance with the above, we regret to state that the Lloyd's classification on Steamers "ROBIN GRAY" and "ROBIN GOODFELLOW" will be discontinued.

Yours very truly,
SEAS SHIPPING COMPANY, INC.
(SIGNED) F. W. OSBORNE
Marine Superintendent.

FWO/P

05947-005960-0030

© 2021
Lloyd's Register
Foundation