5th June, 1908.

Dear Sirs,

S. I am in receipt of your letter of the 4th instant, respecting the steam trawler "LA MOUETTE", and in reply I have to explain that expenses amounting to £6. 9. 3 for the completion of the survey of the hull of this vessel, as per account rendered to Mr. W.H. Warren on the 11th May, still remain unpaid, and the settlement of this account is necessary before the vessel's classification can be completed.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary

Messrs. Crabtree & Co.,
Southtown Iron Works,
GREAT YARMOUTH.
