8th May, 1908.

Dear Sirs,

A. I have to acknowledge the receipt of your telegram of today asking for the account of the fees and expenses due in respect of the survey of the new steamer "LA MOUETTE" and with reference to the conveyance which was had over the telephone with you with regard to the matter I regret to say that Mr. Barrett has not yet sent in his report on the case and I am therefore not in a position to send you the account desired tonight.

Mr. Barrett is out of town today, but will probably return tomorrow, in which case I shall have pleasure in complying with your request.

Trusting the delay will not inconvenience you,

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Messrs. Crabtree & Co., Ltd.,
Southtown,
GREAT YARMOUTH.

pro Secretary.
