Dear Sir,

S.S. "SEMIRAMIS" ex "KYLEGORM"

We acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 14th instant, which we are passing on to the owners of the vessel.

You mention that we shall doubtless remember that at the time of her sale special application was made by the new owners to be given an interim and loadline certificate for the voyage from the Bristol Channel to Greece, where, it was stated, a full Special Survey and all the extensive repairs necessary would be carried out for class maintenance. We wish to inform you that we have no knowledge of any application having been made on these lines, and we were certainly not aware that the owners had given an undertaking that the steamer's class would be maintained. Although we are the agents for the s.s. "SEMIRAMIS" our appointment did not take effect until the ship had been repaired and was ready to sail from this country. All arrangements for the repair of the vessel and for classification were conducted by the owners.

From the general tenor of your letter we cannot but feel that some reflection is being cast upon this Company for the apparent breach of good faith on the part of the Owners. We therefore considered it desirable that we should explain the position to you, and we shall be grateful if you will explain the circumstances to the Committee so that they may be properly informed of the true position.

We shall be obliged if you will acknowledge this letter in due course.

Yours faithfully,

CHANDRIS (ENGLAND) LIMITED.
