22nd December, 1914.

Dear Mr. Mancor,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 5th instant, in regard to the case of the steamer "INTERNATIONAL", and have taken very careful note of the remarks which you have been good enough to make upon the subject. Before going further into the matter, we are awaiting the receipt of the communication which Mr. Crosthwaite has informed you is on its way to us from Mr. Pessano, but which has not yet come to hand.

Thanking you for your attention,

Yours faithfully,

James H. Mancor, Esq.,

NEW YORK.
