Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 8th instant, relating completion of survey of the steam trawler "ERNIO", we beg to advise you that we have not yet received a reply to our letter of 14th ultimo to the owner of this vessel, we are endeavouring to get in touch with him through business friends of his in this city and will advise you as soon as we can get any information regarding this case, but we do not anticipate that the owner will be prepared to submit this vessel for further survey until after the end of September, as fish is fetching very high prices on this coast consequent on the influx of visitors for the summer season.

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

For the Surveyors.
